Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 25 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly fine but with cloud and sunshine amounts varying.

This Evening and Tonight:
Cloudier conditions spreading to most eastern, northern and central areas, thick enough for a little light rain or drizzle in places. Cloud should break again across the east later. Meanwhile many western areas should stay clearer, with some fog patches.

Thursday:
Cloudier skies filtering further west before breaking up, leaving sunny spells for most, the west sunniest and still warm. East and southeast cloudier, odd light coastal shower. Cooler for some.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Most places dry with variable cloud and sunny spells. Isolated showers in central and southeast areas on Saturday. Some light rain or drizzle at times around coasts in the north.
